STATUS UPDATE

On January 3, 2023, Mr. Mendoza-Vazquez submitted a request to relocate to the District of New Hampshire and live with his girlfriend. On February 8, 2023, a transfer of supervision request was submitted to the District of New Hampshire. On February 22, 2023, the District of New Hampshire accepted the transfer of supervision request. In their acceptance letter, the District of New Hampshire requested the special condition of community service (400 hours) be removed due to limited opportunities for community service within their district. Mr. Mendoza-Vazquez is currently being supervised by the District of New Hampshire while the transfer of supervision process is completed. He is following all of the remaining conditions of supervised release. Therefore, it is respectfully recommended the special condition for community service be removed.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
